

Learner's code of conduct

When participating in WEA courses and activities, the following behaviour is expected of all staff, students and members:-

- Act in a responsible way to safeguard your own health and safety and that of others (in line with the WEA Health and Safety Policy*)
- Respect the different backgrounds, experiences and lifestyles of others
- Act in ways which do not discriminate against people of different backgrounds (in line with the WEA Equality and Diversity Policy*)
- Do not use language which could offend others, eg racist, sexist, homophobic, ageist, or language offensive to people with a disability
- If you feel you have been treated with a lack of respect, been harassed, or discriminated against, contact either your course tutor or the WEA Regional Secretary. They will follow this up with you
- Comply with any other policies of this centre. They will be displayed in the classroom, if applicable

*All policies are on the WEA website <http://www.wea.org.uk> or available on request from the Regional Office
