Course overview

This course offers an insight into Gustav Klimt and how his paintings of women, landscapes and portraits, created controversy behind the scenes. Set in a relaxed environment, this course is a great way to learn something new, socialise with others and gain confidence in a group setting.

Course description

A working class lad whose art dominated the capitol of an empire and whose life & paintings of women, allegories, portraits & landscapes fascinated contemporaries; yet as a leader of the Secession he unintentionally created controversy.
