Course overview

Working in the UK aims to improve your communication skills on preparing to work in the UK and will include health, shopping, and most importantly employability. This course will help students understand the culture of work in the UK. It will also help you get the skills needed for work in the UK. The course is for speakers of other languages, and it is highly recommended to complete this course before progressing on to ESOL courses. As it will build your confidence and broaden your vocabulary. This course is a working in the UK (SCC course-only for residents living in Southampton)

Course description

This course will help you to understand aspects of employment opportunities in the UK. It will help you feel more confident about living in the UK, and you will get familiar with some employability words, including professions along with the skills and responsibilities of those jobs. You will learn where to look for employment such as online, including websites and places you can go to and inquire in person. During this course, you will also explore how to complete a simple, short job application form with your personal details while understanding the questions within different forms. You will then read employment-related texts to identify and become more familiar with words you can find in job vacancies such as part-time, FTC, fixed term and many more. This course will broaden your knowledge and understanding of common symbols and signs found in work environment. With all the combined, you will practice your speaking and listening skills, along with pronunciation of employability words. The course also focused on reading and writing skills as you will read various work-related texts, answer questions about them and provide your answers in writing, which will contribute to further practising and becoming familiar with spellings of work-related words and phrases.
