Course overview

This course is for adult learners whose first language is not English. It is an ESOL course for learners with a good level of English, working around Level 1 or higher. On this course you will practise and build on all skills of English, including reading, listening and speaking, but the focus will be on reading. Before you can enrol on this course, you'll do a skills check. This is for us to make sure you get on the right course for your level. Please note that you'll need an internet connection to study this course so you can access our digital learning platform, Canvas.

Course description

Before you can enrol on this course, you'll do a skills check. This is for us to make sure you get on the right course for your level.

Please note that you'll need an internet connection to study this English course in Literature for ESOL. This is so you can access our digital learning platform, Canvas. We use Canvas for homework, and also for tasks and activities in the classroom. You will need to use your phone in class to work on Canvas, and you should also bring a notebook and pen or pencil.

This is an English course for adults. You will develop your English language skills which should already be around Level 1.

There are 5 learning outcomes on this course. You will need to achieve these outcomes in order to pass the course. You are expected to attend the classes regularly and be punctual. You are expected to participate in class and complete any homework given by the tutor.

On this course you will learn to read a text and identify the literary form, and you will answer questions about the meaning of a text. You will be introduced to famous British writers and explore their roles in society.

What financial support is available?

We don't want anything to stand in your way when it comes to bringing Adult learning within reach so if you need anything to support you to achieve your goals then speak to one of our education experts during your enrolment journey. Most of our courses are government funded but if you don't qualify or need alternative financial help to access them then let us know.

What other support is available?

All of our digital content, teaching and learning activities and assessments are designed to be accessible so if you need any additional support you can discuss this with the education experts during your enrolment journey and we will do all we can to make sure you have optimal access.
