Course overview

This course is designed for you to develop your creative side and use your previous clay hand-building techniques to progress to an intermediate level, plus a chance explore the different decorative styles working with Clay. By the end of the course you should have lots of different pottery pieces and different pottery skills. You will be in a group with others and led by a talented Arts and Crafts tutor. Your work will be taken away and fired in a kiln by the tutor and it will be yours to keep!

Course description

This creative hand clay course allows you to explore your art and craft skills to find practices that you enjoy. Whether you like drawing, painting, origami, or craft-making, art courses can help you find a relaxing hobby. This creative hand clay course is ideal if you want to feel calm while developing your creativity skills up to an intermediate level. Learn the skills and techniques to produce your own clay pieces, explore the tools and materials needed and take inspiration from other creators, all whilst being guided by an experienced WEA tutor. Your artwork will be uploaded to Canvas (our digital learning platform) as evidence of learning. You will work in a group and will end up with your own pottery piece that you can take home. This course is a wonderful way to meet others, explore your creative side and build confidence at the same time. You will be with like minded people in a relaxed atmosphere and your tutor will ensure you are guided all the way to your final masterpiece!
