Course overview

This micro course is aimed at building community in diverse times and finding collaborative solutions for community issues. On this course you will understand how to use skills to create harmonious living and working environments. On completion of this course you will be awarded the digital badge: Peaceful Communities Advocate which honours individuals who actively promote peace, tolerance and unity within their communities.

Course description

This micro course is designed for learners who are passionate about fostering peace and harmony in their local area. It provides a welcoming and supportive environment to explore the principles of peaceful advocacy and practical ways to promote understanding, cooperation, and mutual respect within diverse communities. During the session, learners will discuss the key qualities of a peaceful advocate, such as empathy, active listening, and effective communication. They will learn strategies to manage and resolve conflicts constructively, build bridges across differences, and encourage positive dialogue in challenging situations. The course will also cover how to recognise and challenge prejudice or divisive behaviour in a respectful and impactful way. By the end of the course, learners will feel confident in their ability to influence positive change and promote peace in their communities. They will leave with actionable ideas for fostering unity and inclusion, along with practical tools for being a role model of peaceful advocacy. This course is ideal for anyone who wants to contribute to a more cohesive and understanding society while building their own communication and leadership skills.
