Course overview

This course blends practical craft skills with essential business and marketing knowledge. It aims to build your confidence to make products to sell. The primary goal is to provide a comprehensive framework for planning, creating, marketing, and selling handmade products successfully. You will make your craft products in class together with the help of your tutor and at the end of the course we will have a community stall in the centre to sell all the crafts we have made to help raise funds for your local community project.
